

The I.D.E.A. Store provides the Central Illinois area a non-profit marketplace for the exchange of reusable goods. Everyone can shop and donate reusable materials of all kinds for creative re-use!

As an earned-income social enterprise of the Champaign Urbana Schools Foundation, the local and publicly supported tax-exempt education foundation that supports local schools, The I.D.E.A. Store brings important dollars to the classroom. By donating your high-quality, clean and safe reusable goods to our store, you contribute to the future of education for our K-12 children and have a positive impact on our environment by interrupting the waste stream and conserving natural resources. Come to our store for fresh inspirations and very low prices!

The I.D.E.A. Store by CUSF sells to teachers, parents, students, fine artists, other non-profits, crafters, program leaders, curious inventors, designers...You!

Creative Re-use Marketplace

The I.D.E.A. Store*

A place where artists, educators, re-purposers, crafters and friends can find re-use materials for the projects that fill our lives. A place where eco-friendly is more than an idea – it's what we do. Come check out our ginormous stocks of safe, clean, materials ripe for re-use. From the everyday to the every-which-way, re-purposed materials are our greatest and greenest resource for projects of every kind – and The I.D.E.A. Store is the place to find them!
